

A FEARFUL ADVENTURE.

The Missouri Republican, in a letter from a Kansas correspondent, has the following:

“At St. Josephs I saw Mr. A. T. Gorman, of New York, who had just come in from the mountains in such a state of prostration and affliction as could only have been occasioned by such exposure, hardship and suffering, as perhaps no other man ever survived. In company with a Canadian Frenchman and two Kentuckians he left the country of the Blackfeet Indians last Fall to join Culverson and party at Fort Pierre and accompany them to the states. They arrived at Fort Pierre two days after Culverson's departure, and hurried on after, in the hope of overtaking him. On the third day one of those snow
